Anne Kimbell, Member

Dr. Warren Barham, Member

DISTRICT OFFICE—751 School St. — Superintendent of the Vacaville Unified School District is Mr. Robert B. Pokorny, Associate Superintendent is Mr. Fred Petersen, Assistant Superintendent in charge of instruction and pupil personnel services is John C. Harvey and Mr. Robert Hawthorne is the Business Manager of the District.

VACAVILLE HIGH SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Lyle Welch
Vice-Principal: Mr. Roger Forssell; Head Counselor and Dean of Women: Mrs. Nancy Klees

Built in the late Fifties, this comprehensive school will be complemented shortly by the Vaca Valley High School scheduled for completion in 1968 to be located South of Highway 40.

WILLIS JEPSON SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Walter Vater
580 Elder Street

An Intermediate School serving the 7th and 8th Grades

The seventh and eighth grades are departmentalized preparing students for entry into high school. Special education classes round out a complete educational program for High School.

Pictures, space, and school information herein is sponsored by James G. Hanson, Jack Guthrie, Obie K. Ladd, Lucille Spengler, Dr. Paul R. Nielsen, and Wallace Brazelton.

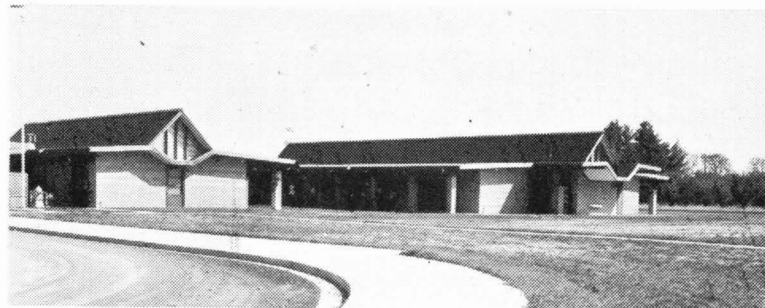

ELM SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. John M. Bilinsky
129 Elm Street
K-6 School

This is the oldest school in the Vacaville System, (although less than twenty years old). It also serves the central city and rural pupils.

ALAMO SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Charles A. Sesma
500 Orchard Avenue
K-6 School

Located on the Western Edge of Vacaville, Alamo School serves one of the newest residential areas. It is currently the largest and one of the newest schools in Vacaville. Facilities for the mentally retarded are provided in this facility.

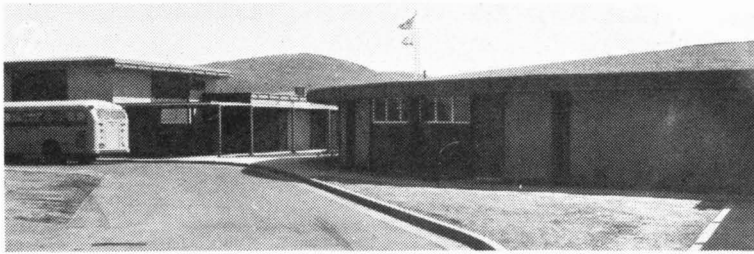

EUGENE PADAN SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Dale Borden
I-6 School

The newest school, when completed, will be one of the largest. It is located on the South Side of Highway 40, serving a growing section of Vacaville. It was designed by the local architectural firm of Hanson & Guthrie.

ELMIRA SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Chester D. Stone
I-6 School

This rural school was recently annexed in the Unification of the Elmira-Vacaville School Systems. Students attending Elmira School will be provided with the same services as those of the city schools.

EDWIN MARKHAM SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Chester D. Stone
100 Markham Avenue

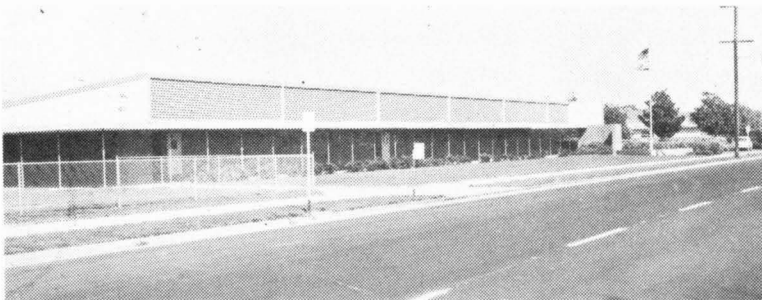

K-6 Plus Classes for Aurally Handicapped

This school is adjacent to a growing area in the rolling English Hills in the North East Section of Vacaville. It is a prime example of neighborhood service schools. Aurally Handicapped classes provide an education for the deaf student.

ULATIS SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Dr. John B. Lawson
K-6

This school is near the center of the city and the district office. It is on the banks of the Ulatis Creek on a school site dating back to the early history of Vacaville including the campus of an early day college.

MONTE VISTA SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. Harold Bush
100 Monte Vista Avenue

1-6 School.

It is adjacent to Vacaville High School. It is the third oldest, though quite modern, and serves the central residential area of Vacaville.

HEMLOCK SCHOOL: Principal 1966-67: Mr. John E. Arlington
K-5 School.

This recently constructed school serves a densely populated area in the North West Section of Vacaville and is one of the larger elementary schools in a ten school system.
